 1 Monkey gangs in Malaysia
Monkeys were already living near the city of Kuala Lumpur when people cut down the jungle to build new houses. People used to feed the monkeys and take photos of them. But then the monkey 'thieves' started to chase people and steal food. ²  Now, wildlife experts warn people not to feed the monkeys.

 2 'Firebirds' in Australia
In Australia, there are birds which commit a crime called 'arson' (starting fires). One witness said: 'While the bushland was burning, these so-called 'fire hawks' were picking up the burning grass and dropping it in other places.' ²  Why do 'fire hawks' start fires? Experts think it's because they can chase the small animals that run away from the fire.

 3 Cat burglar in New Zealand
In Auckland, things were disappearing from people's homes. Who was the thief? It was Oscar the cat! While the neighbours were sleeping, Oscar was looking for his favourite thing: socks! He usually stole them at night, but sometimes he also took the socks from children's shoes while they were doing PE at school. ³

- a This thief stole about a thousand socks.
- b They even chase people who are jogging in the park!
- c Some birds were even working together.
